THE COKE STRIKERS.

The Dead Buried To-gether To-day.

THE STRIKERS NOT SUFFERING.

Many Have Much Money in Bank.

Muttering Maledictions In Unknown Tongues.

The Strikers' Situation.

MOUNT PLEASANT (Pa.), April 4.—The situation in the coke regions is not materially changed. The feeling prevails that as long as the militia remains there will be no more lawlessness. It is feared that unless the strike is settled before they are called home depredations will be renewed as soon as their backs are turned. The feeling among the strikers is intensely bitter, but they are careful to commit no overt act, and content themselves with scowling at the militia and murmuring in unintelligible tongues. Some apprehensions are felt that an outbreak will occur at the funeral of the victims this afternoon. The strikers are massing at Scottsdale and the largest demonstration ever held in the coke regions is expected. The funeral will start from Mount Pleasant at 2:30 o'clock, and the cortege will reach Scottsdale an hour and a half later. The march to the Catholic cemetery will then be taken up, and not less than ten thousand coke workers will follow the bodies to the grave. The bodies will be buried in a long trench dug this morning.

Every precaution has been taken to prevent trouble. The saloons have been closed for the day, and five companies of the Eighteenth regiment, under command of Col. Smith, are now on the ground. From 9 o'clock yesterday morning until 10 o'clock to-day an unbroken line of foreigners, only about one in ten of whom could speak English, filed around the bier upon which the dead lay. Sobs and groans were heard on every side as the crowds collected about the clothing which the victims last wore, and judging from their actions they will prove vipers to the men who did the shooting. It is well-known among the citizens that the lives of Captain Lauer and his deputies will be in jeopardy should the militia be withdrawn. No doubt the strikers are determined to wreak vengeance eventually upon the people responsible for the death of their countrymen.

All is quiet here to-day. The streets are deserted, the most of the Huns having quietly departed for Scottsdale during the night. The coke company is not making any effort to get men to fill the places of the strikers. A peculiar feature of the situation is that although the men have been out of work over a month they still seem to have considerable money, and from outward appearances are not suffering for anything. In a Mount Pleasant bank is a large list of depositors whose savings range from $60 to $3,000. Of this money very little has been withdrawn. How these people live without drawing money is difficult for Americans to understand. To those who have no money the labor organizations furnish small sums. The strike is likely to continue indefinitely.

SCOTSDALE, (Pa.), April 4.—A special meeting of strikers has been called to assemble immediately after the funeral. The leaders say they will counsel moderation. A Pittsburgh gentleman just home from the coke regions says it is the general impression that it is the intention to prolong the funeral services until after dark and then attack some unprotected locality.

PRITTSBURG, April 4.—H. C. Finch, the coke operator, says the outbreak in the coke regions should be laid to the door of cunning labor leagues who, for several purposes, incited them to riot. He denies importing a man.

Rebels Gaining.

PARIS, April 4.—It is announced that the Chilean iron-clad Pilcomayo, with the officers and crew, have deserted the cause of President Balmaceda and joined the rebel fleet, which now numbers forty war vessels.

Weather Report.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—The forecast is rains on the upper northwest coast.

Havemeyer as a Witness.

By Associated Press.]

NEW YORK, April 4.—The Sugar Trust Committee of the State Senate met again to-day. Theo. Havemeyer of the American Sugar Refining Co. has nothing to do with the California refineries. There was nothing in the report that the refineries were going to combine and raise prices. The cost of refining here is greater than in any other country. A letter was handed to the witness and he was asked to read it and to tell what he thought of it.

The letter was addressed to the Chairman of the sugar trust investigation. It stated that, last week, an agreement was entered into between the sugar trust and all other American refineries on one part and all of the principal wholesale grocers of the United States of the second part; that the American refineries are to pay the grocers one-fourth of a cent per pound, together with one per cent discount, if bills for sugar are paid within one week from the date of the sale. In return, the grocers pledged themselves not to purchase any foreign refined sugar. Havemeyer said the whole thing was a lie.

Examiner's Bureau.

By Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, April 4.—William R. Hearst, son of the late Senator Hearst of California, has just established in this city a bureau to carry out the provisions of a bill championed by his father, and passed by the last Congress, providing for the payment of Indian depredation claims, which probably amount to $20,000,000 or more. The bill transfers the jurisdiction of these claims from the Interior Department to a Court of Claims, extending it to all cases examined by the department. It also declares void all contracts between clients and attorneys, and will affect hundreds of attorneys who already have contracts, inasmuch as their efforts so far will be lost, should their clients desire to employ new legal assistance. The Hearst bureau will be called the "Examiners," in honor of his San Francisco newspaper.

Wires Demoralized.

By Associated Press.]

BOSTON, April 4.—Thursday night's storm resulted in a general demoralization to telegraph service out of Boston. Poles have been blown down, wires tangled and wrecked, and the general condition of the telegraph system is worse than that which resulted from the blizzard of January 25th. Neither the Western Union nor the Postal had a wire working to New York yesterday, and Associated Press wires are down in all directions.

THE EASTERN MARKET.

Chicago Butchers Not Happy—

Paying a Good Round Sum for the Article.

The Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph contains the following bit of information about the Eastern market, which will be read with interest: Butchers have no particular reason to be happy. Their wares are costing them more money than before the advance a few days ago. In selling the same they cannot add to former prices the advanced cost price. Chicago dressed beef costs 8 cents per pound in the city. The former price was 6 cents. This district consumes about 300,000 pounds of Chicago beef per week, and the additional cost to butchers is therefore in the neighborhood of $6,000. This is why the butchers of this city, as well as all others, are not happy. This same advance extends all over the country.

The cause of the advance is this: Last fall, on account of the high price of feed, live stock men stampeded all their cattle and hogs to market to prevent them from eating their heads off. Packers had to take them, and prices fell. When the rush was over cattle became scarce, so scarce that Kentucky, Canada and various parts of the East have been drawn upon by Chicago for the first time extensively since that city became a pork and beef center.

A Fine Store.

The Palace Dry Goods and Carpet House are moving their fine stock of dry goods into the elegant new store under the GAZETTE to-day. When they get "settled" they will have the finest store in the State, stocked with one of the largest stocks of dry goods this side of San Francisco. This enterprising firm is here to do business and does not propose to get left.

State Land Office.

Since last report four applications to purchase State land were filed, embracing 200 acres.

ITALIAN QUESTION.

Secretary Blaine Says Nothing.

MANIPURS MEAN MISCHIEF.

Pacific and Patient Premier Di Rudini.

Canadians Are Pleased Over the Prospects.

The Premier Is Pacific.

By Associated Press.]

NEW YORK, April 4.—The Mail and Express has a cable from Rome on the present situation. A mutual friend of the correspondent and Premier Rudini obtained a statement from Rudini.

The Premier said he harbored none but the most friendly sentiments towards the United States. These have not been really disturbed by the action which he felt called upon to take as the representative of the Italian people, upon having officially been made acquainted with the New Orleans affair and the position which Blaine was obliged to take in the matter. He had no intention of pushing any demands, and was content with having taken one positive step as a protection against what he was led to believe at the time was a neglect on the part of the United States to protect the lives of Italian citizens in America, under the provisions of the treaty. He expressed himself as aware that to do anything more at this juncture would be to give up a grave error on his part, as he had perfect confidence in the sincerity and justice of the United States.

Finally he said: "I shall now simply await for further details of the New Orleans affair; the characters of the slain men and of the Louisiana authorities, and of the intentions of the United States government; but whatever these may be, I am quite sure that a settlement thoroughly satisfactory to both parties will be found, and that the friendship which binds the two nations will remain unalterable and secure."

Canadians Rejoicing.

By Associated Press.]

OTTAWA, April 4.—Sir Charles Tupper reached this city from Washington this morning. A meeting of the Cabinet was held, lasting two and a half hours, after which Sir Charles Tupper, Sir John Thompson, Minister of Justice, and the Hon. G. E. Foster, Minister of Finance, left for Washington.

There is great rejoicing in Government circles over the success of Tupper's mission. It was learned that the Canadian government, at a conference to be held at Washington on Monday, will submit a proposition which, it is hoped, will be satisfactory to Blaine. This will not propose any radical departure from the present policy of protection, but will be based upon mutual concessions, which will not sacrifice vested interests.

Gould and Subsidies.

By Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Jay Gould and his son George had a long conference with Postmaster General Wanamaker at the Postoffice Department to-day. The question of the Pacific Mail Steamship line, of which George Gould is President, in connection with the new postal subsidy was discussed. Gould stated he was willing to guarantee that whatever money might be granted the steamship company under that act would be expended in creating new lines. The question of rates on government telegraph business from July, 1891, was also discussed, as was the question of increased mail facilities on the Union Pacific.

All Quiet on the Potomac.

By Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, April 4.—It is again announced that the State Department has nothing to make public to-day respecting the Italian correspondence. The excitement in departmental circles over Baron Fava's recall has subsided. The incident will, it is believed, take its place in the ordinary calendar of open diplomatic matters whose disposition is usually characterized by deliberation and patience.

Charleston Junketing.

By Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, April 4.—It is possible the cruiser Charleston may go to Alaska. The Senate Committee on Territories is required to visit Alaska and have so far been unable to make arrangements with private transportation companies to furnish a steamer at reasonable rates.

The Manipur Massacre.

By Cable and Associated Press.]

CALCUTTA, April 4.—Further details concerning the capture of Fort Thabat near Manipur, the scene of the recent massacre of British troops by the natives, have been received. The British forces which carried the troops by assault, numbered only eighty Indian troops. The garrison of the Fort was composed of nine hundred Manipurs, but the onslaught of the British was so fierce that the Manipurs fled in wild disorder. Reinforcements have been dispatched but it is feared the Manipurs will return the attack of the British detachment, in full force, before reinforcements can reach the scene.

Information was received here this afternoon that Lieutenant Grant's light force of Indian troops is now confronted by a large force of Manipurs who, in addition to being well armed with rifles, have several field guns and it is feared that Lieutenant Grant's force will be annihilated unless reinforcements are hurried forward.

RANGOON, April 4.—The natives of Manipur who have arrived here, report that Chief Commissioner James W. Winton, taken prisoner at the time of the massacre, was, together with a party of officers who accompanied him, killed on the first day of the fighting.

Behring Sea Case.

By Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Attorney-general Miller and Solicitor-general Taft had a conference with the President this morning in regard to the Sayward case, involving the jurisdiction of the United States over the Behring Sea fisheries, pending before the United States Supreme Court. The return of the United States Judge of Alaska and of the documents in the case were briefly considered.

Sedgwick, Deputy Minister of Justice, says there is no foundation for the statement that the Sayward case will be withdrawn from the Supreme Court of the United States; that in reply to Blaine, Lord Salisbury intimated that the suit is in no way postponed or stopped by the diplomatic correspondence in regard to the Behring Sea. The Sayward case will come again before the Court on the return of the writ of prohibition, on the 13th inst.

Another Eyraud Case.

By Associated Press.]

NEW YORK, April 4.—From San Jose, Guatemala, comes details of a murder similar to the celebrated Eyraud case at Paris. A wealthy banker named Carlos Santibanez, in November, was enticed to a house in the outskirts of the city for the purpose of purchasing a large amount of American exchange. He had a large sum of money on his person. The assassin's mistress inveigled him into a compromising position, when the assassin, a Spaniard named Gonzales, rushed in and stabbed him to death and robbed the body and shipped it to the United States. The facts were just brought to light by the confession of Gonzales when drunk. Gonzales and the woman, with another conspirator, are under arrest. Doubtless they will be punished.

Stands on His Record.

By Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Senator Blair Minister to China, was among the President's callers to-day. He confirmed the report that he is going to China, but said he did not expect to leave for several weeks. He said his sentiments in regard to the question of Chinese immigration have been misrepresented by a number of newspapers. He is willing to stand by his record on that question and did not care to answer newspaper attacks on him personally.

Miller Safe at Greytown.

By Associated Press.]

NEW YORK, April 4.—The general managers of the Nicaragua Canal Construction Company received this morning a cable from Hon. Warner Miller at Greytown, Nicaragua, as follows: "Arrived at Greytown Thursday morning, the 2d instant, all safe and in good health."

A later telegram says the steamer Aguan and cargo will be a total loss. The party will continue the trip as originally laid out.

Olsen Murder Case.

Special to the GAZETTE.]

MERCED, (Cal.), April 4.—Proceedings in the Olsen case began this morning. All the witnesses of the prosecution were called, about forty-five in number, and sworn. J. R. Jones, the first witness, took the stand and told the story of how the Sunday previous to the murder was spent, and how he discovered the body of Ivet on Monday morning.

Strike in Principle Only.

By Cable and Associated Press.]

PARIS, April 4.—The International Commerce Congress is in session in this city. It adopted the amendment of the delegates of the British miners, accepting a proposal to organize a general strike in principle only.

Mailor's Ark Leaked.

Special to the GAZETTE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—Henry Ark, the Financial Secretary of the Coast Seamen's Union, was arrested by Officer Egan to-day and charged with embezzlement. Ark has been Secretary of the Union for the past two years, and it is alleged that while filling the position he embezzled $2,500 of the money belonging to the organization. When seen in his cell at the City Prison this afternoon Ark did not deny that he squandered the money, but claimed that not more than $1,800 was spent. Fast living is attributed as the cause of his downfall. When arrested a loaded pistol was found on him and a charge of carrying concealed weapons was also entered on the books.

Little Pete Again.

Special to the GAZETTE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—Little Pete, the notorious jury briber and all-around highbinder, appeared in court this morning to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt, for attempting to bribe Thomas P. Bashford, a witness in the Howling murder case. Little Pete's examination was postponed until Monday.

Farmers' Alliance.

Special to the GAZETTE.]

HUENEME (Cal.), April 4.—The County Farmers' Alliance has been in session two days. Marion Canon, President of the State Alliance, delivered the address. The announcement is made that the Alliance will take an active part in politics and have a home official organization in this county.

Needs Confirming.

By Associated Press.]

ST. LOUIS, April 4.—A special from St. Joseph, Mo., says Dr. Wm. S. Leach of that city is one of the American citizens held in Italy by the Italian government. His family received a dispatch from him yesterday, which was the first knowledge they had that he was in Italy.

Earthquake in Izo.

Special to the GAZETTE.]

BISHOP (Cal.), April 4.—A light but prolonged earthquake shock occurred this morning about 4:30 o'clock. Its direction was apparently east to west.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

5 O'CLOCK EDITION

The interest of A. O. Porter, deceased, in the Reno Evening Gazette newspaper plant was this day purchased by the undersigned. In assuming the individual ownership of the GAZETTE no prospectus is necessary. The paper will be devoted to Nevada and Nevada's best interests first, last and all the time, and it will be enlarged and improved as fast as its environment will justify. We have but one business and that is the GAZETTE, and but one motive, and that is to do right.

ALLEN C. BRAGG.

Commercial Retaliation.

The San Francisco Examiner puts it thus: Our esteemed contemporary, the Popolo Romano, launches the awful threat: "If we cannot obtain the solemn rights which one people owes to another, we will at the least allow ourselves the satisfaction of sending back the American vessels filled with wheat for our markets and returning to Yankee breeders their trichinous meat."

Perhaps, after all, this would be the best solution of the difficulty. Last year we exported to Italy 100,000 bushels of wheat, valued at $1,730,401; 228 barrels of flour, worth $1,243; 100,000 pounds of bacon, worth $1,000,000; 100,000 pounds of fresh pork, worth $1,000,000; 100,000 pounds of ham, worth $670; Total, 32 tons of wheat and pork product, valued at $1,913. That would be enough to load a good-sized fishing smack, and if it would relieve Premier Rudini's feelings to send the cargo back to us we ought not to grudge him the satisfaction.

Of course Italy would not object to our reciprocating by going elsewhere for the $1,730,401 worth of wheat, the $1,730,401 worth of flour, the $1,800,585 worth of sulphur, the $408,684 worth of rags, the $4,848,238 worth of silk and silk manufactures, the $123,395 worth of works of art, the $298,443 worth of sumac, the $102,289 worth of manufactures of hemp, flax and jute, the $3,297,678 worth of lemons, the $1,294,089 worth of oranges, the $298,801 worth of preserved fruits, the $552,348 worth of nuts, the $875,069 worth of hats, bonnets, etc., the $304,080 worth of iron ore, the $285,870 worth of kid and leather gloves, the $512,956 worth of marble, the $385,910 worth of olive oil, the $214,408 worth of cheese, the $171,505 worth of soap, the $112,828 worth of beans and peas and the $171,478 worth of wine, that we now buy from her producers. Nor would the fact that we sold to Italy last year $12,974,249 worth of goods of all kinds and bought from her $20,330,051 worth be considered at all a pertinent circumstance in this connection.

The Journal is trying to screw its courage up to a pitch where it can say that it will not support Cleveland if he is nominated, but it has made a sorry mess of it so far. The Journal's why of course it will support Cleveland or any other Democrat, be he of high or low degree. Its judgment is so warped and blinded that it will support anything Democratic. We can all look for the Journal to howl as lustily for Cleveland if he is the Democratic nominee two years hence, as did the Silver State two years ago—that is, of course, if it is under its present management. The Journal is too party hide bound to cast the note from its own eye so long as there lives a Republican that it can find fault with. You have heard what we said; now wait and see if we are not correct.

WHAT Reno wants is manufactures along the Truckee to take advantage of one of the best water powers in the world. A manufacturing enterprise that would give employment to twenty laboring men the year round at living wages would do more to bring the town out than anything that could happen, and we hope to see some one study up an industry that can live. The GAZETTE has had assurance that there will be no lack of capital if a feasible plan is presented.

A WORKING WOLF.

It Does the Churning for a Farmer's Family.

The Strange Manner in Which the Animal Was Reared and Taught to Perform His Labors on the Farm.

Any one who may visit Richard Cunningham's farm, which lies pretty well up in the Blue mountains in the north-eastern part of this county, says a Pittsburgh paper, will see a sight the like of which was probably never seen anywhere in this country before.

It is an immense black wolf—one of the last of its race in this State—with eyes that glare fiercely at all who come near him, with the exception of Farmer Cunningham himself, and accompanying this glare with savage growls, and yet meekly treading the monotonous round of a churning machine, like some household dog or old ewe sheep. This performance of a menial service by the wolf, singular as it is, is by no means the strangest thing about him. He has a history.

Last spring, a year ago, Farmer Cunningham discovered that something was carrying off his lambs almost as fast as they were born in his flock. He suspected that this was being done by a wildcat, and he set a trap to see if he could not catch the animal. When he went to his trap next morning he was amazed to find that, instead of a wildcat, he had captured a wolf.

It had been years since any one had seen or heard of wolves in that region, although they were at one time numerous in the Blue mountains. It was evident to Cunningham, however, that if the wolf he had caught in the trap belonged to that neighborhood it had not roamed the woods a solitary representative of its race. It was a she wolf, and, although the animal was held fast by both forefeet in the trap, she was lying patiently on the ground and giving suckle to a baby wolf when Cunningham appeared on the scene.

When the wolf saw him she sprang to her feet and savagely confronted him. He shot her through the head and captured the whelp alive. It was not more than three weeks old. Cunningham took it home with the carcass of the dead one. The young wolf moaned piteously for its mother, and the farmer proposed killing it.

His wife would not hear of the killing of the whining cub, and took charge of it herself. She could not induce it to take substance, and it was in a good way to starve to death when Mrs. Cunningham had a bright idea. The night before her husband set the trap one of their ewes was robbed of her lamb. The wolf undoubtedly stole it. Failing in all her efforts to introduce food into the stomach of the baby wolf, Mrs. Cunningham carried it to the bereaved ewe.

The ewe was brought from the pasture to the farm-yard, and for weeks visitors saw the strange spectacle of a sheep suckling a wolf, the wolf, beyond all doubt, being the offspring of the one that robbed the sheep of her own young.

The wolf thrived amazingly on sheep's milk, and the strange foster-parent and child formed the strongest kind of an attachment to each other, which remained unbroken until the death of the sheep a few weeks ago.

As the wolf grew the unsociability if not the entire savageness of its kind manifested itself, and he was kept securely chained. Although it was Mrs. Cunningham who saved his life, the wolf did not like her to come near him, but he early showed the greatest friendship to Farmer Cunningham, who handled him as easily as he would a house dog.

The old ewe sheep was the churning sheep of the farm, and it was no uncommon sight to see her and the wolf asleep side by side, but there was good reason to believe that no other sheep on the farm could have approached within reach of him with safety. A short time ago a barn door fell on the ewe and killed her. It was churning day, and Cunningham was at a loss to know what to do for power to run the treadmill that operated the churn.

Finally he thought of the wolf, which is an unusually large and powerful one. He resolved to try the animal as a churning and put him on the mill. The wolf objected strongly at first, but when the machine started he submitted and ran off the churning in excellent style. Since then he has been regularly engaged in running the machine, and he goes to his work as cheerfully as an animal of his kind could be expected to.

ATTORNEY AND CLIENT.

Lawyers Are Hammered by Those Who Employ Them.

Suppose every prospective litigant were to relieve himself of all manner of blame before seeking the services of a lawyer, were to apologize if an apology was called for, pay money if money were due, confess and plead guilty if he had done a wrong or committed a crime, and having exhausted every effort of the kind that a nice sense of honor would demand, suppose he were still compelled to go to law to obtain or protect his rights; what would the result be if he should lay the matter fairly before his attorney, and say: "I want this case tried openly and honorably. I don't want a suspicion of unfairness or prejudice or undue advantage of any kind to attach to it in any way?" Why, the result would be that the attorney would obey instructions and do so cheerfully, writes Homer Greene in the North American Review. And if the opposing attorney were similarly instructed, what an unusual and refreshing spectacle there would be in court when that case should come on for trial? Yet there are few attorneys who would not rather, and far rather conduct a cause after this fashion than with the usual concealment, evasion, exaggeration and strained logic, if only they could be satisfied of the approval of their client and the appreciation of the public.

Itinerant Dress Cleaners.

A new female device for earning a livelihood is that of going around to the houses of society people and cleaning and repairing fine dresses that have been accidentally soiled or otherwise injured. The scheme was developed in Buffalo. There are some women who have all they can attend to in this line.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Druggists

In Lowell, Mass., agree in saying that they sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than of all other blood purifiers. For instance: F. C. GOODALE: I sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than all other blood purifiers. A. W. DOW & CO.: Hood's takes the lead of all other Sarsaparillas.

C. F. BLANCHARD: We sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than of any similar. MARSH & SHAW: With us the sale of Hood's is 9 to 1 of any other kind. F. & E. BAILLY & CO.: Hood's Sarsaparilla is one of the best medicines.

CALVERT & HOBBS: Hood's Sarsaparilla is one of the best medicines we have. Its sale increases every year. F. P. MOODY: We sell twice as much of Hood's Sarsaparilla as of anything similar.

C. A. SWAN: Hood's is the most popular Sarsaparilla of the day.

THIRTY OTHER DRUGGISTS speak similarly. This popularity at home, where Hood's Sarsaparilla and its proprietors have been known for many years, could not continue if the medicine did not possess merit. And these facts should certainly convince people in other sections of the country that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a good, reliable medicine.
